Black Cultural Programming Committee

BLACK CULTURAL PROGRAMMING COMMITTEE

*“Establishing
Our Presence by Encouraging
Unity”*

MISSION

The Black Cultural Programming Committee at the University of Tennessee in 1979. Since its inception, the committee's objectives have been to:

- Develop and present programs and activities that enhances public awareness of African-Americans and their accomplishments within the international society;
- Foster an atmosphere for the interaction and unity of African-American students within the University community;
- Provide an opportunity for African-American students to maintain positive and continuous communication/involvement with the academic and local communities;
- Serve as a catalyst to motivate the African-American students' self-development, discovery, and esteem during their educational career at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

OUR PAST EVENTS

Some of our many activities and programs include; social tailgates, legendary lecturers, well-known comedic acts, world renowned dance companies and troupes, to name a few.
